Vice-President of Evergreen Remodeling Earns National "Aging-in-Place" Certification

Fort Wayne, IN, January 4, 2010 — Ross Eagleson, vice-president of Evergreen Remodeling, Inc., a licensed, Fort Wayne-based residential and commercial remodeling firm, has earned the CERTIFIED AGING-IN-PLACE SPECIALIST (CAPS) designation from the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), in collaboration with the AARP. The initiative is designed to help NAHB members provide comprehensive, practical, market-specific information about working with older and maturing adults to remodel their homes for aging-in place. Eagleson successfully completed the program's required 24 credit hours of NAHB approved training to earn the CAPS designation and is now among an elite list of certified aging-in-place professional contractors.
